PRESIDENTS REPORT
By George Skic

In case you hadn't noticed , your board has managed to continue publication of JERSEYana, without any interruption, maintaining our line of communication with the membership. After much brainstorming and a few pleas, Dennis has been appointed Editor of JERSEYana and Al has taken on the Treasurer's position. Steve has been appointed membership chairman, and continues to serve as our Vice-President. Esther and I will continue to serve as Secretary and President, respectively, until we all get tired of the whole thing, which is already happening.

That's the good news. The not-so-good news is that the same group of people is carrying this organization through another year. No volunteers, no need for election of officers, no new material provided for JERSEYana. Enough said. Is anyone listening out there??

On a more pleasant note, find elsware in this issue mention of Garden State Numismatic Association's annual convention and NJES' annual public meeting. A couple of special treats are in store for those coming to the convention this year. First, the New Jersey Token and Medal Show is returning to our state. And secondly, Joe Levine will conduct one of his fine auctions on the same weekend. Again, details on all these events can be found elsewhere in this issue.

Hope to see many more of you in June at the GSNA Convention and please make an effort to attend our annual NJES meeting on that Saturday. Don't forget to bring auction material, items for show-and-tell, and dough to pay for your 50/50 tickets.

Let me take this opportunity to remind those of you who have not paid your 1996 dues that time is running out. Don't let a good thing get away from you!

TREASURERS REPORT
By Dennis Helmer

The balance in our treasury at the end of April, 1996, was $4,167.41. These funds are in our checking account. Our CD, which matured in April for $2,831.77, was matured and deposited in our checking account in anticipation of the transfer of the Treasurers position to Al Zaika. Al will establish our account in a bank more convenient to him, and then re-invest a portion of our funds in a new CD.

FROM YOUR NEW EDITOR
By Dennis Helmer

Our newsletter is the most important communications vehicle that we have. It keeps our mutual collecting interests alive, and can serve to develop a broader sharing of the selective information that we all possess.

When Al was forced to relinquish his very capable role as Editor due to his failing eyesight, a plea went out to our membership. No one responded!! The Executive Committee then sought out someone to keep JERSEYana going. The cost of hiring a "Professional" newsletter editor was considered excessive, so I offered to do the job for $50.00 an issue.

I'll be working very closely with Al during this transition process, but I really need your articles if we intend to keep NJES alive and growing. Please send me your articles about your particular specialty, so I can include it in a future JERSEYana.

I only have 3 articles waiting "in the wings"; so I urge each and every one of you to renew your commitment to NJES, and share your hard earned knowledge by sending me an article.

The publication schedule for the remaining 1996 editions of JERSEYana are:

JUL-AUG- SEPT	Cutoff: July 15	Issue: August 15
OCT-NOV-DEC	Cutoff: Oct15	Issue November15

Hope to see you at the meeting!!!

New Jersey Token and Medal Show

June 20-22, 1996
South Jersey Expo Center
2323 Rt. 73 at Rt 644 (Haddonfield Rd)
Pennsauken, NJ

After two years out of state the New Jersey Token and Medal Show returns to the Philadelphia area! Held in conjunction with the Garden State Numismatic Association, you may see all your favorite exonumia dealers Thursday, June 20, from 1:00 to 7:00, Friday the 21st, from 10:00 to 7:00, and Saturday, 10:00 to 5:00.

There is no charge, of course, and we have a special gift for the first 300 collectors who bring this flyer to booth T1 in the exonumia section. You'll find Paul Cunningham at booth T1 there with a free phone card for you!

It's hard to estimate how many exonumia dealers will be at the show but we're predicting at least 20 will be in attendance. There may be as many as 200 or more coin dealers also; this is GSNA's major summer show.

Joe Levine of Presidential Coin and Antique will present another of his landmark auction at the show. The auction is scheduled for 7:30 Friday night at the Expo Center. For further information call Presidential at 703-354-5454.

Dealers and collectors needing more information may call Paul Cunningham at 517-423-8951 or write to Box One, Tecumseh, MI 49286. Dealers and collectors staying overnight may contact the Landmark Inn, the "official" expo hotel, on Rt 73, in Mapleshade, NJ. The rate is $45 double and the hotel is about two miles from the Expo Center (call 609-235-6400 and mention GSNA). There may be lower priced accommodations in the area.

The New Jersey Token/Medal Show

SOUTH JERSEY EXPO CENTER, ROUTE 73 AND HADDONFIELD ROAD
PENNSAUKEN, N.J.

The New Jersey Token and Medal Show will be held at the South Jersey Expo Center, Pennsauken, New Jersey, June 20-22, 1996. Returning to the Philadelphia area by acclamation of the collecting fraternity, it will be held in conjunction with the Garden State Numismatic Association. The NJTMS is a popular show which will draw up to 50 collectibles dealers from the immediate area and from surrounding states, and other far-flung locations such as Florida, New York, California, Iowa, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan. Among the various areas of collectibles represented are casino gaming chips and memorabilia, tokens and medals, Americana of every type, such as Civil War artifacts, early advertising signs and political items, old toys, sheet music, comic books, ephemera, glass, baseball cards, telephone cards: every imaginable "small" collectible antique.

The Garden State Numismatic Association is holding its annual three day show here at this time and that, of course, will appeal not only to collectors of coins and paper money, but also to those who pursue related collectibles.

H. Joseph Levine of Presidential Coin and Antique Co. has again planned an exceptional auction of tokens and medals to be held in conjunction with the show. The public auction is tentatively scheduled for 8PM Friday, June 21. For further information call Presidential at (703) 354-5454.

Dealers or collectors seeking more information may contact Paul A. Cunningham, Box One, Tecumseh, MI 49286, or call 517-423-8951.

[Note to publisher: the show attendance is expected to be 2000 to 3000 or more. Please feel free to send any literature to my attention at the show. Our customers are always appreciative of samples of your publication!]
